There is at least one postmaster in the United States who knows the meaning of a change in Administrations. His name is Peterson, and he lives in Sangamon County, Ill. When a score of his towns-people signed a letter accusing him of "Offensive partisanship" and demanding his immediate removal, Mr. Peterson, who must be an agreeable fellow, indoresd it as follows:

"I heartily concur in the above I think I ought to be bounced at once." The department will doubtless accommodate Mr. Peterson and when he has laid down the cares of official life he should go out among his Republican brethren who have been or are to be bounced and shed upon the sweetness and light of his own cheerful spirit of acceptance of what is inevitable.—[Louisville Times.

"How Did I Get Dyspepsia!"
Many a sufferer wants to know that. Well, fifty ways. Tough meat, heavy hot bread, soggy pie, hurried eating, cross company at table, insufficient chewing, constant worry and all the others. Now, "How shall I get rid of dyspepsia?" That is plain enough. Take the best iron tonic in the world—Brown's Iron Bitters. It seems almost to work miracles. Mr. Berry, of Petersburg, Va., had chronic dyspepsia for two years. Brown's Iron Bitters cured him. Mr. Cavins, of Dinvidde, had it for iventy years, Brown's Iron Bitters cured him likewise. Try it.

[Philadelphia Times.]

There are hundreds of small grocery stores in this city where the majority of the customers make penny purchases, and a sale to one purchaser, amounting to 10 cents, is considered by the grocer a good big bill. These stores are generally looking the penny grocery are increasing, so a large retail grocer said Monday. He also said that they were an evil and that the penny grocer and with a growing state of the penny grocer and with the penny grocer and the penny grocer will fill a good sized market basket. Here is what a penny grocer at Seventh and Wall street, just above Circitatin, gives as an illustrated what a quantite of a dollar will buy?
